Animals are images particularly favored by stuck carpets. The addition of human figures, especially children, increased value. Her carpet depicts the children's rhyme of 1830 Mary Had a Little Lamb, which was written by Sarah Josepha Buell Hale. This stuck carpet probably dates back to the 1940s, based on the colors used, and possibly made of a pattern. Previous carpets often don't tell stories as charming as this, especially in these kinds of graphic details. p>Valued at: $650 * The estimates provided are preliminary only and subject to changes based on first-hand inspection and additional research.
